

Senior High School Calls Students

Next Wednesday will bring the opening of another academic year at Dansville Senior High School. It also will mark the fourth year with George Goodwin as principal and 465 students are expected to report on the first day.

Students will report to their assigned homerooms at 8:10 a.m. There will be teachers in the front foyer to assist those not knowing their room assignments.

This year, the Senior High will implement a new eight-period schedule. As before, the doors will open at 8:05 a.m. and homeroom will begin at 8:10 a.m. The school day will conclude with regular classes at 2:35 p.m. with the activity period following until 3:30 p.m.

The complete time schedule includes first period, 8:20 to 9 a.m.; second period, 9:03 to 9:43 a.m.; third period, 9:46 to 10:26; fourth period, 10:29 to 11:09; fifth period, 11:12 a.m. to 12:26 p.m.; sixth period, 12:29 to 1:09 p.m.; seventh period, 1:12 to 1:52 p.m.; eighth period, 1:55 to 2:35; activity period, 2:25 to 3:30 p.m.

Lunch will be served in three sections and include section one, 11:12 to 11:42 a.m.; section two, 11:34 a.m. to 12:04 p.m.; section three, 11:56 a.m. to 12:26 p.m. Cost of lunch for the Senior High will be 80 cents with milk and ice cream each costing 25 cents.

On opening day, all students will be given the 1987-88 Senior High handbook which includes all procedures and policies. Parents are urged to review the handbook with their children and particular note should be made in the following areas:

Revised graduation requirements, according to the State Regents Action Plan. It should be noted that graduation requirements for the classes of 1989 and 1990 differ from those for the class of 1988.

Several changes are listed in the Student Discipline Policy. In particular it should be noted that beginning this year, any student who is suspended from school, with either in-school or out-of-school suspension, on five occasions or more will be referred to the superintendent of schools for a suspension hearing.

Newly-developed policies, to be implemented this year, regarding drug and alcohol substance abuse.

Three new people join the school faculty and staff this year. David Mapes, a longtime elementary school instructor, will teach social studies. He has been in the Dansville system for 16 years and also taught in the primary school.

Gerard Diener, a 1986 graduate of Genesee State University College, will teach in the English Department at the 10th, 11th, and 12th grade levels.

Lisa Cuddeback is the new secretary in the Guidance Office. She is a graduate of Dansville Senior High and began her duties in early August.

Returning faculty members are: Art—Evelyn Lewis. Business—Joan Castor, Michael Joles, Martha Umbrecht. English—Michelle Maichle,

During the summer, Goodwin and a committee of Senior High teachers worked on laying the foundations for building a plan for the upcoming year. At the opening faculty meeting Sept. 8, the committee will present to other teachers, an implementation plan for the 1987-88 year. Goodwin said the plan developed is designed to work toward a school goal—"To create a more positive climate which will promote greater student and teacher motivation."

THE CHURCH DIRECTORY

A Weekly Publication of Services in Dansville & Surrounding Area Churches

The life we live has come to be. A model for the world to see: It didn't happen just by chance. That our great nation could advance, In ways we asked the Lord to bless; We carved it from the wilderness, By working hard without complaint And using with enough restraint Each resource, so we'll still provide For future needs to be supplied. Our House of Worship thus commands The efforts of our brains and hands. So learn the lessons of your creed, Which say the Lord fulfills each need While teaching us to work and pray; Then let's enjoy this Labor Day.

Happiness, I have discovered, is nearly always a rebound from hard work. —David Grayson

"Every man should enjoy the good of his labour, it is the gift of God." —Ecclesiastes 3:13
